

INDEX

Bojan Aleksov is a lecturer in Southeast European History at the UCL School of Slavonic and East European Studies, London. Previously he held posts at European University Institute in Florence and Osteuropa Institut of the Free University in Berlin. His main research interests are in the relationship between religion and nationalism and the influence of modernization on religious institutions and popular religiosity.

Robert J. Donia is a Research Associate at the University of Michigan's Center for Russian and East European Studies, a Visiting Scholar in history at the University of California at San Diego, and holds a courtesy appointment as Associate Professor of History at the University of Sarajevo. He has served as an expert witness in seven war crimes trials at the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia in The Hague.

Selma Harrington, Trinity College Dublin (Alumni), Ireland, is an RIAI registered architect, consultant and lecturer and is currently Chairperson of the RIAI International Affairs Division and was recently elected president of the Architectural Council of Europe (ACE).

Horst Haselsteiner, Univ.-Professor für die Geschichte Ostmitteleuropas, Universität Wien. Ordentliches Mitglied der Geisteswissenschaftlichen Klasse Magyar Tudományos Akadémia, Ehrenmitglied der Sektion Philosophie und Geschichte, Commission Internationale des Études Historiques Slaves, Ehrenpräsident Österreichische Akademie der Wissenschaften, korrespondierendes Mitglied der philosophisch-historischen Klasse im Inland.

Guido van Hengel is a lecturer/researcher of contemporary history at the Faculty of Arts at the Rijksuniversiteit Groningen, The Netherlands. He studied at the Rijksuniversiteit Groningen, Friedrich Schiller Universität Jena (Germany) and the University of Belgrade.

Mustafa Imamović is a Professor of State and Law at Sarajevo University. He has studied and graduated from Law Faculty at the University of Belgrade where he obtained his MA and PhD degrees. During his academic career he taught law at the faculties in Belgrade, Novi Sad, Mostar and Rijeka. He also taught at the Department of History at Yale University, New Haven and several other universities in the United States.

Husnija Kamberović is a Professor at the Department of History and a director of the Institute for History of the University of Sarajevo. He graduated history at the University of Sarajevo (1987), a master's degree (1991) and PhD (2001) he received at the University of Zagreb. Since 1989, he has been working at the Institute for History in Sarajevo.

Vera Katz is Senior Research Fellow at the Institute for History of the University of Sarajevo. She graduated history at the University of Sarajevo (1978), a master's degree (1986) and PhD (2006) she received at the same University. Since 1978 she has been working at the Institute for History in Sarajevo.

James Lyon is an Associate researcher at the Center for Southeast European Studies, Graz, Austria. Lyon has studied the Balkans for over thirty-four years. He received a PhD in Modern Balkan History at the University of California, Los Angeles, and MA in International Relations from Brigham Young University.